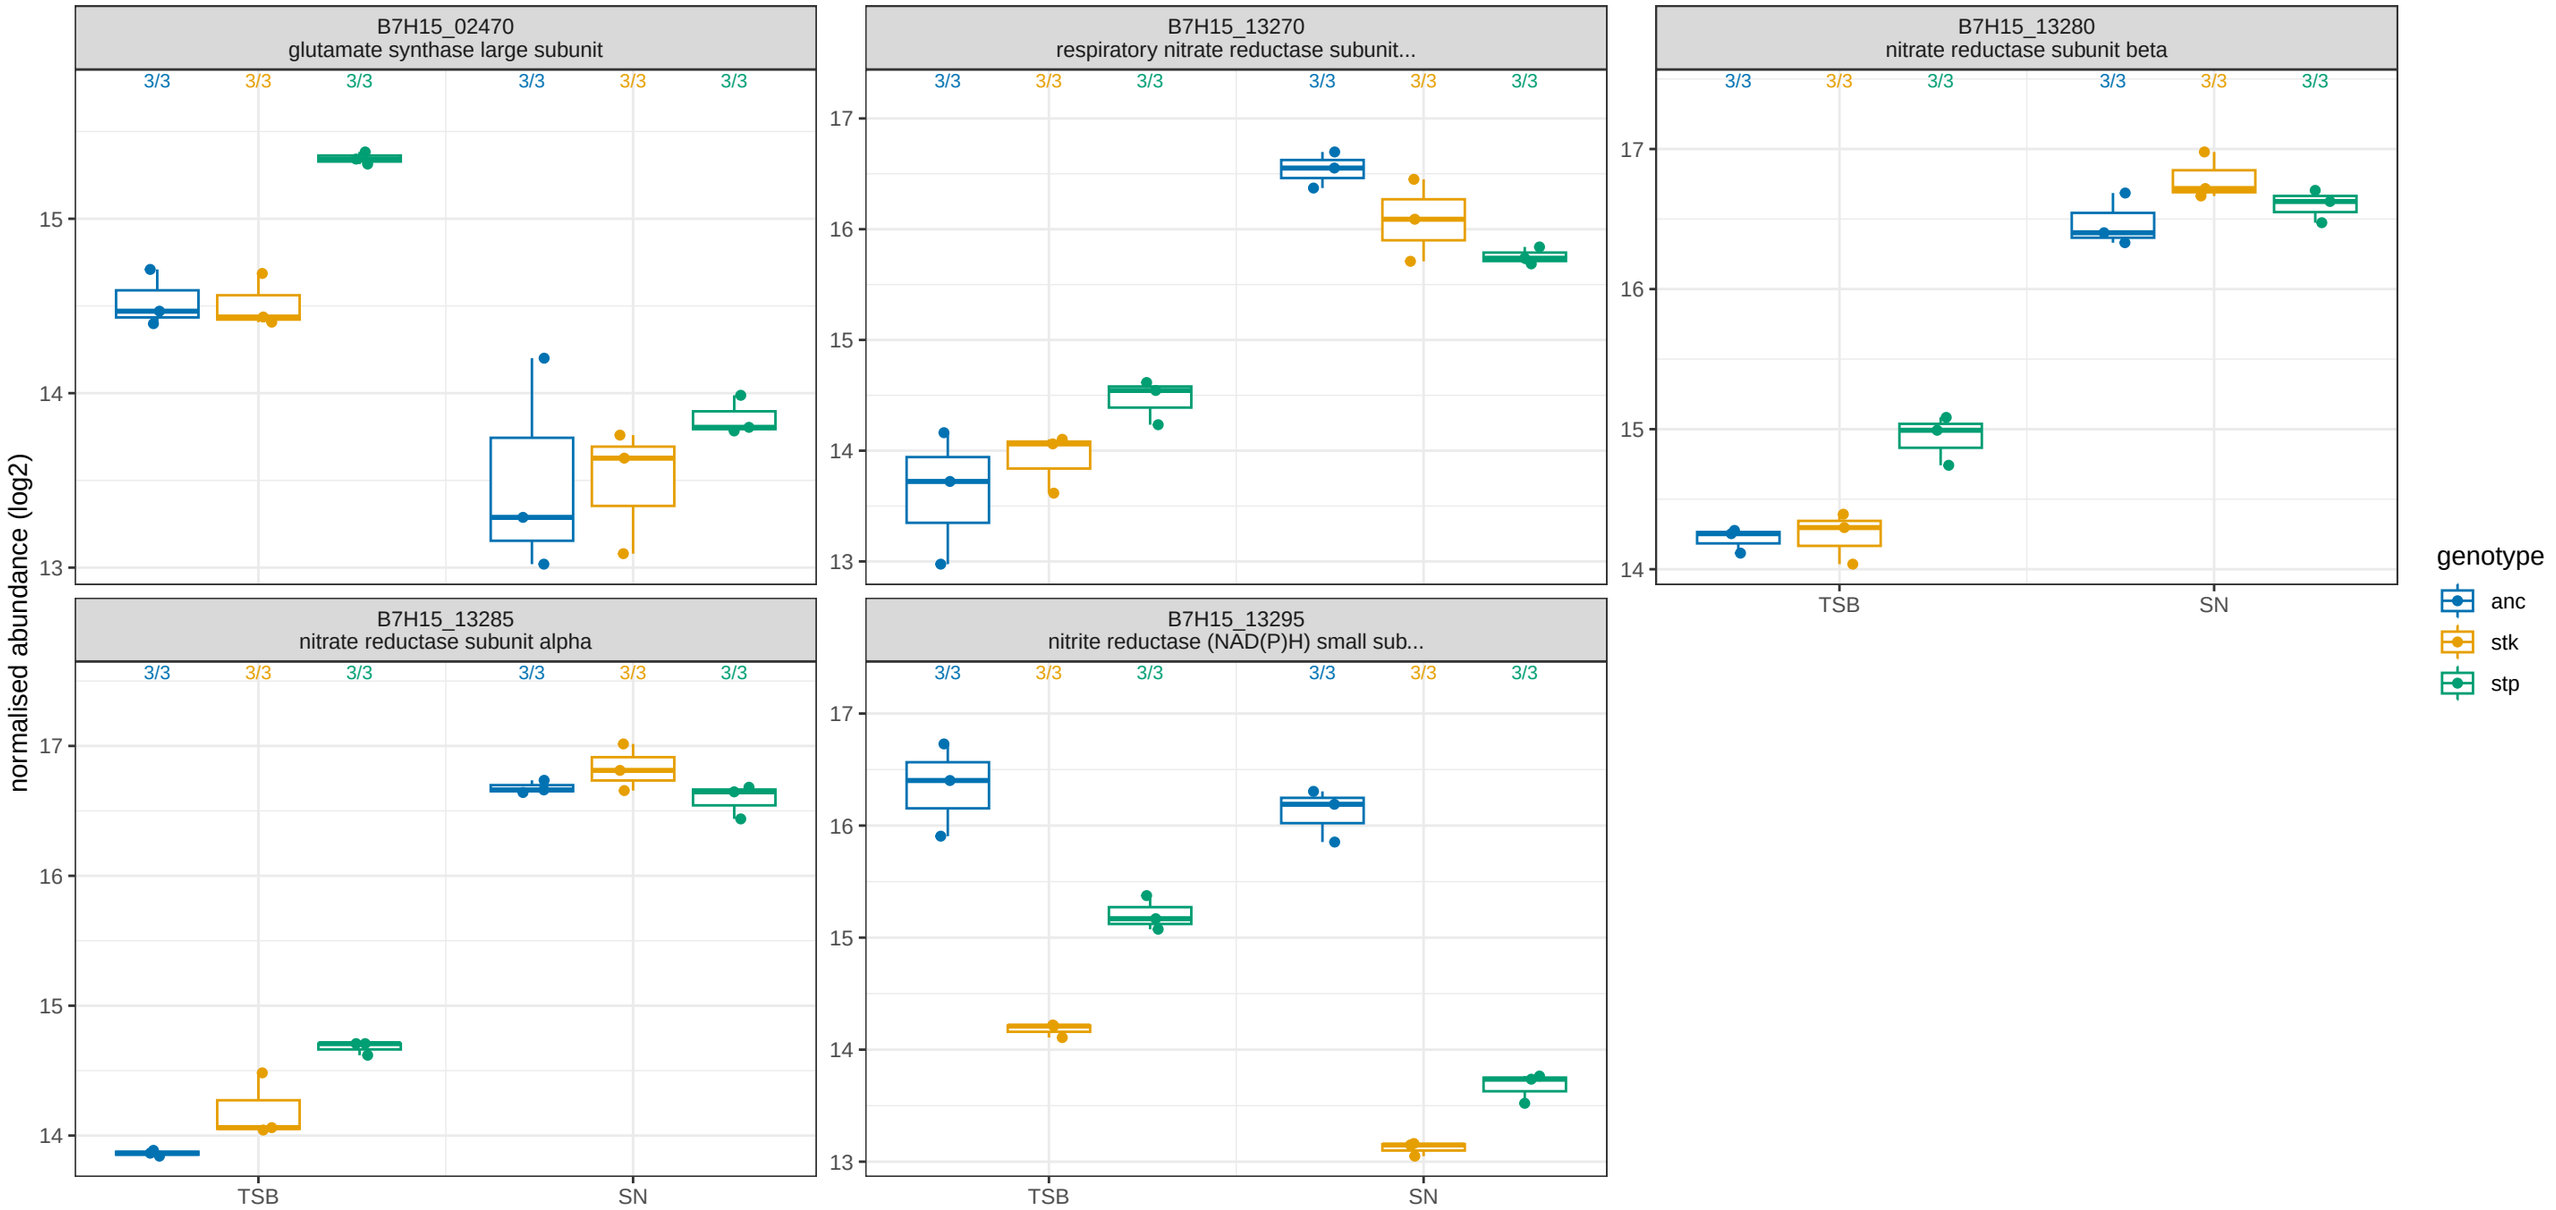
Measured values behind the stp−dependent nitrogen−metabolism result

All leading−edge proteins of the study−significant stp−versus−ancestor nitrogen−metabolism interaction



Points are individual samples; labels count measured values out of three. Missing values stay missing. Protein abundance does not establish flux or direct kinase targets.